

About StyleSynch

:: bringing style to every girl's digital life ::

In today's world, no modern girl can get much done without a high tech gadget, whether it be a cellular phone, laptop or mp3 player. Yet, we are still flooded with an endless array of electronics and electronic accessories that are sadly aesthetically challenged or designed for guys. Worse, the few aesthetically-challenged items that are out there are hard to find. Fortunately, StyleSynch is changing all of that. We're here to bring style to every girl's digital life.

Our vision is simple:

To revolutionize the way women relate to their tech gear!

How do we accomplish this?

- By being the premier shopping destination for every girl to find fashionable tech gear that fits her individual sense of style. We aim to offer the best selection of products that are fashionable AND functional.
- By offering the utmost in customer service including free standard shipping and returns, awesome personal support and information you REALLY want.
